

Dear Friends

Knuston Hall Open Day No.6

If you are able to help at our sixth Open Day on Monday, 25 August 2014, please email me on eflanagan@northamptonshire.gov.uk as soon as possible, giving details of what times you can help on 25th and what sort of tasks you are able or happy to help with. I promise that you will not end up doing something you don't want to do or tasks that are too physical for you. Also, it would be an ideal opportunity to bring somebody else along who has never been to Knuston before, but knows all about it through you. If you do bring a 'new' person with you to the Open Day, please introduce them to me. I will be the relaxed, calm looking gentleman on the microphone getting closer and closer to the pond as the day progresses!! Please think about helping out, as there are always jobs that appear at the last minute that need 'a helping hand' so your help will be much appreciated.

Bedroom Refurbishment

As many of you have pointed out, it is a real joy to see the area of refurbished bedrooms in The West Wing, completed to a fabulous standard in February 2014. In many ways it is an even bigger joy to report that, because we have seen yet another increase in bookings for Knuston's own courses this year, we are now planning the next programme of bedroom refurbishment. We have yet to finalise which rooms this will be, so you will have to "keep 'em peeled" over the coming months to find out which bedrooms we decide upon.

Our Quality Tutor Team

Please continue to let me know about tutors and speakers you have come across on your travels who have inspired and enthused you, and who you know from first hand experience would provide quality learning experiences. With an ever-growing and developing team of inspirational and enthusiastic tutors, all the signs seem to be present to indicate that the future of Knuston Hall is very bright indeed. Eight years of growth in our enrolments has not happened by accident, so thank you to each and every one of you who has played a part in that amazing story, a story that has been played out during an economic downturn! Amazing!

Paul Blantern, CEO

Northamptonshire County Council's Chief Executive Paul Blantern, a regular visitor to Knuston Hall, is well aware of Knuston's continuing success and commented when addressing a recent Knuston event, "here we are at Knuston Hall, a real NCC success story on a local and national scale, not just surviving when most similar services across the UK have closed, but even breaking its own records for each of the last seven years". Yesterday Paul added "I wish Knuston every success going into its busy Summer School period and I personally extend a warm welcome not only to the many residents of our splendid county planning to visit Knuston this year but also to the hundreds of guests who travel, sometimes for many hours, from other parts of the UK and beyond".

Finally, I hope you find a course or talk to suit you within the pages of this programme. Remember to glance through the 'forthcoming courses' section at the end of the brochure which shows how many tutors are keen to plan their contribution to Knuston far into the future. Can you believe some courses are full at the end of 2015?

Regards and see you here again soon.

Best Wishes

Enrolment & General Information

Enrolling, Deposits and Balances

Each course booking requires a deposit of £40. Day courses and shorter events require the full fee payable on enrolment. You can enrol using the telephone, email or in person. Unfortunately it is not possible to reserve a place unless the deposit is paid or is on its way in the post, in which case the place will be held for five days. Once the deposit has been paid, this is taken as confirmation that the course is booked and you will attend. A receipt and full course details will follow when they are available. The balance of the fee is due one month before the course. If we have not received the balance at this time we will contact you for payment. If the balance is not settled following a reminder, we reserve the right to offer that place to another applicant.

Catering/Special Dietary Requirements

All meals and refreshments are included in the residential price of courses. Meals and refreshments are also included for those who choose to join a course as a non-resident with the exception of breakfast.

Whilst we cannot cater for a wide range of likes and dislikes, we can cater for vegetarian, vegan, 'no red meat' and gluten-free diets, if booked in advance. Please mention your special diet EVERY time you enrol so that records can be kept up to date. If you have any serious allergies to food types, please inform us when you enrol, and remind us on arrival.

Arrival and Departure Times

Many courses have standard 'weekend' timings, so unless your course details state otherwise, arrival on day 1 is usually from 5.30pm in time for the meal at 7pm. We now have a lunch talk programme on specific Fridays so weekend guests can have the option of arriving early. See pages 28 and 29 for details. If there is no lunch talk, why not come for lunch anyway? Call 01933 312104 to book. On the final day of weekend courses, departure is approximately 3.30pm. However, we ask that bedrooms are vacated by 9.30am unless you are informed that this is not necessary. PLEASE read your course details carefully as day courses and longer courses have different timings.

Cancellations, Refunds and Transfer of Fees

We suggest you take out your own insurance in case you have to cancel due to unforeseen circumstances.

Residential Courses: If cancellation is as a result of a medical condition for which you can provide certification, your deposit is transferable and your balance is refundable. If, however, it is not as a result of a medical condition and it is more than two weeks before the course starts, your balance is refundable and your deposit transferable apart from a £10 'admin fee'. If it is not as a result of a medical condition, and is within two weeks of the start of the course, no refund or transfer of fees is possible. A deposit can only be transferred as a deposit on a new enrolment. No fees can be transferred to another person.

Day Courses: More than two weeks before the course, the fees are refundable apart from a £10 admin fee. If it is not as a result of a medical condition, and is within two weeks of the start of the course, no refund or transfer of fees is possible.

Dinner Talks, Out To Lunch Plus, B&B: Full refund if we are informed before the event.

Equal Opportunities Policy

Knuston Hall is committed to providing equal opportunities without discrimination for all people. We wish to ensure that each student is treated fairly and has an equal opportunity to fulfil her/his potential. When contacting the college to discuss or enrol on a course, please mention all information which may help us to provide the best possible circumstances for you. This could include issues such as any mobility difficulties, hearing or visual limitations, special learning needs or allergies. Whatever it is, we will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to help.

G311 Not Just a Little Painting

Wed – Fri: 1–3 October 2014

Tutor: Aza Adlam

Shared bedroom occupancy: £241.00

Single bedroom occupancy: £273.00

Non-resident: £185.00

My own first thoughts when booking onto my first "Miniature Painting" course were that I would love to know how to do little tiny paintings, imagining that it was merely a case of doing what I already did, but smaller ... but I was wrong! There are completely different techniques required for painting "Miniatures" as we learn how to use a plastic, ceramic or non-absorbent surface in order to emulate the ivory of the early miniaturists. So, if you have a leaning towards the smaller scale when it comes to painting, then come and learn some new skills and perhaps discover a passion for painting these exquisite little masterpieces.

G520 'Wir sind doch Schwestern' by Anne Gesthuysen

German Language Through Literature (Intermediate/Advanced Level)

Weekend: 17–19 October 2014

Tutor: Walter Drews

Standard Weekend Price: See above

'Wir sind doch Schwestern' is a portrait of three sisters who met to celebrate the eldest sister's 100th birthday. It is also a chronicle of an entire century because she was born in the 19th century, lived through the 20th and died in the 21st. The sisters are not fictional characters, but were related to the author of the book, Anne Gesthuysen and this is her first novel which became a bestseller overnight.

The book ISBN no. 978-3-492-30431-3, published by Piper should be purchased, read in advance and brought to the course, when we will re-read and discuss selected extracts, consider some of the relevant historical events, and view a German film of merit.

Select Christmas decorations from a large range and work them to adorn your tree and table with style, or choose some pieces of jewellery to make from a specially designed exclusive collection and enhance your partywear over Christmas and the New Year. Both decorations and jewellery are made using just needle and thread and predominantly tiny seed beads with the addition of some accent beads, and in the jewellery particularly, Swarovski crystals to add plenty of sparkle! Suitable for all levels of ability.

G100 Film History: The Films of Director David Lean

Mon – Fri: 20–24 October 2014

Tutor: Peter Kendrick

Shared bedroom occupancy: £403.00

Single bedroom occupancy: £467.00

Non-resident: £309.00

David Lean (1908–1991) was one of the few British directors to gain an international reputation – and his films won 27 Oscars. His first work was in the '40's ("In Which we Serve", "This Happy Breed", "Brief Encounter", the Dickens adaptations of "Great Expectations" and "Oliver Twist", etc). For two films in the early '50's Lean produced as well as directed: "The Sound Barrier" and "Hobson's Choice". All his subsequent five films were epics shot on location and financed internationally: "The Bridge on the River Kwai", "Lawrence of Arabia", "Doctor Zhivago", "Ryan's Daughter" and "A Passage to India". During five days we shall see Lean's career, his approach to filmmaking and his films.

G934 Energy Chakra Balancing

Wednesday 22 October 2014

Tutor: Angie Woodard

One day non-residential course

9.15am–4.45pm £58

This workshop aims to provide knowledge and understanding of the seven major chakra energy centres in our body in which energy flows through. Blocked energy in our seven chakras can often lead to illness, so it is important to understand what each Chakra represents and what we can do to keep this energy flowing freely. The course includes information about each Chakra and various useful techniques to keep the Chakras energised and open.

9.15am–4.45pm £58

This one day taster course will cover the basics of writing with a flexible pointed nib in the Copperplate style. The course is designed for anyone who would like to write in Copperplate, from complete beginners to those with some experience who wish to improve their hand. It's an opportunity to practice under the helpful eye of the tutor.

G509 Stumpwork – An Autumn Theme

Weekend: 24–26 October 2014

Tutor: Kay Dennis

Standard Weekend Price: See above

Our theme of autumn reflects a season of mists and mellow fruitfulness. In autumn our hedgerows and woods are rich in colour, texture and form, laden with fruit and berries. Autumn woods provide a bounty of nuts and fungi, while on misty mornings mushrooms and toadstools miraculously appear in the meadows. Stumpwork is a 17th century form of embroidery. It is the padding and raising of embroidery and needlelace that gives stumpwork its unique appearance. See course G702 below.

G702 Stumpwork – An Autumn Theme

Sun – Wed: 26–29 October 2014

Tutor: Kay Dennis

Shared bedroom occupancy: £313.00

The details for this course are the same as G509 above.

G514 Bucks Point Lace

Weekend: 24–26 October 2014

Tutor: Jackie Poulter

Standard Weekend Price: See above

This is a practical course for those who want to learn or further their knowledge of Bucks Point Lace. The course covers all the techniques for this type of lace so it is suitable for those who are new to Bucks Point as well as for those who are experienced in making this beautiful type of lace. During the weekend you could start a new project or work on/complete an ongoing one, learn a new ground, or how to re-draft or design your next project. Geometric and floral techniques are included. Students benefit from individual tuition and group demonstrations.

G522 Folk Music and Song

Weekend: 24–26 October 2014

Tutor: Ray Dron

Standard Weekend Price: See above

After 22 years and more than 60 residential Folk Music courses at Knuston Hall, this is Ray's last course here. Why not come along and celebrate with Ray?

A relaxed, informal course for singers and musicians interested in Folk Music. No particular level of musical skill is needed, but you should have a reasonable familiarity with your instrument, or be a confident singer. With a mixture of vocal and instrumental styles, we hope to create a 'Folk Club' atmosphere. Working towards improving performing styles through working in small groups and solo performances. Each participant will gain something valuable, and will also contribute something to the benefit of other course members. Some music will be available but students are welcome to bring their own material to share with others. On Saturday evening we will present a short concert, inviting other students to join us. You may find a couple of party pieces might be useful here.

G554 Canal Art: Bright Castle and Flowers

Weekend: 24–26 October 2014

Tutor: Tim Whitelock

Standard Weekend Price: See above

Canal art is bright, colourful and an easily learned technique combining art and craft. Fun to paint and needs no real artistic ability, you can learn from scratch or develop previous skills. This course involves painting traditional flower patterns and a bright castle picture. All are welcome and many people become hooked, rediscovering art through this media. Pre-drawn exercises are used and there is time to paint your own items. Look out for more weekend courses with different styles of canal art.

G915 An Introduction to Celtic Design

Friday 21 November 2014

Tutor: David Nicholls

One day non-residential course

9.15am–4.45pm £58

The beautiful and complex patterns that we are all familiar with in Celtic art were actually developed from much earlier examples of interlacing designs from the Romans, and much earlier Chinese examples. Though it is difficult when looking at them to imagine the methods of construction, it is actually quite a simple technique that can be learned by anyone without an artistic background. During this short course we will cover square interlacing knots which can be applied in many areas of the arts and crafts, such as embroidery, patchwork, calligraphy, woodcarving, stained glass, etc.

No previous knowledge is required. See course G558 below.

Tutor: Richard Box

Shared bedroom occupancy: £241.00

Single bedroom occupancy: £273.00

Non-resident: £185.00

Are you petrified of painting but long to try watercolours but have been deterred by the erroneous myth that they are supposed to be 'difficult'? Richard will dispel that myth and teach you, step by step, how to paint a simple still life and achieve marvellous effects with numerous layers of translucent colours. Most problems about painting are concerned about mixing colours. So the course will start with exploring the nature of colour with coloured pencils. This will give you the confidence to transfer your newly discovered knowledge to watercolours. If you follow Richard's 'recipes', you will be thrilled at what you can achieve. See course G103 above.

G559 The Battle of the Bulge

Weekend: 5–7 December 2014

Tutor: David Baker

Standard Weekend Price: See above

After D-Day on 6 June 1944, Allied Forces broke out from Normandy and pushed German troops back toward the Fatherland. But a new wave of terror broke out with the launch of V-1 flying bombs and V-2 rockets. Then, just before Christmas the Germans planned a daring push back toward the Channel coast and it was feared all the gains might be lost. We look at the second half of 1944, when victory seemed to be not so near and an attack known as the Battle of the Bulge brought new fears of defeat.

G538 'Très Riches Heures' – Music in the Fifteenth Century

Weekend: 12–14 December 2014

Tutor: Peter Syrus

Standard Weekend Price: See above

The weekend promises a generous taste of a century too often bypassed as a prelude to the more familiar later Renaissance. It won't address everything, so, for example, there won't be a note by Josquin, who we'll leave for another occasion. Each of Saturday's sessions is devoted to a single composer, but collectively yielding a perhaps surprising diversity of styles and moods in repertoire both sacred and secular. To those four figures, other sessions will add the names of Dunstaple, Ockeghem, and Obrecht. Depending on numbers we shall split into groups for sessions 2, 4 and 6 (all last 90 minutes). The course will be predominantly practical and is intended for singers and players of early instruments (A = 440) confident in a one voice or instrument per part situation. Your application should detail what you intend to offer by way of voice or instrument(s), especially if you are not already known by the tutor.

relevance of his themes and meaning for our own lives? We will read listen and see extracts from his finest comedy 'Much Ado about Nothing' as well as taking a look at human nature and behaviour in 'The Merchant of Venice' and at 'Othello' through key scenes and speeches. All of this takes place in a lively, entertaining workshop and all you need is some enthusiasm. See Course G540 below.

G540 Reflection and Renewal: British and American Novels in the Twenties and Thirties

Weekend: 9–11 January 2015

Tutor: Keith Chandler

Standard Weekend Price: See above

This course will consider the work of four very different writers of the 1920s and 1930s. We will seek to find out how successful they were in their craft and consider the main features of their contrasting narrative styles. How do they reflect their age in Britain and America, people and places, relationships and contexts? We will study: A Farewell to Arms (Hemingway); To the Lighthouse (Woolf); Light in August (Faulkner); A Handful of Dust (Waugh). All-comers are welcome – No previous level of study is required, just an interest and enthusiasm for reading. However, you should read the novels in advance of the course and bring copies along with you to the course. See course G907 above.

G576 Cryptic Crosswords for Beginners

Weekend: 9–11 January 2015

Tutor: Henry Howarth

Standard Weekend Price: See above*

This course teaches beginners how to solve cryptic crosswords. It starts with the simplest ideas and easiest types of cryptic clue and gradually progresses to the more advanced aspects of clue solving. Practical activities are blended with theory, enabling students to build their skills and understanding in tandem. The course is engaging and fun, and leads to an enjoyable and stimulating pastime. There will be a supplement of £10 for a copy of the course book 'Learn How to Solve Cryptic Crosswords' payable to the tutor.

G588 Just Knit!

Weekend: 9–11 January 2015

Tutor: Janet Goodall

Standard Weekend Price: See above

Come along for a weekend of (not just) knitting! If you're an absolute beginner, there will be instruction available from an experienced tutor; if there are things you want to learn (cabling, patterning, intarsia), that will also be possible. If you're an experienced knitter, come along for time away from home to try something new, finish off a few UFOs (unfinished objects) or just knit in relaxed, comfortable surroundings with like minded people. Bring your own needles and wool, patterns and projects if you have them; if not, there will be needles and wool to try! With individual guidance from the tutor, knitters will be free to choose what they do in their time.

G905 Beading – Getting into Geometrics!

Friday 9 January 2015

Tutor: Stephanie Burnham

One day non-residential course

9.15am–4.45pm

£58

Have you ever looked at geometric patterns and wanted to have a go but felt a bit daunted? If so, then this is the workshop for you. Students will create a simple geometric pendant which can be placed on any number of bead woven chains. The design will be worked using Delica seed beads. See course G527 below.

G527 Vintage Meets Shabby Chic – Beadwoven Jewellery

Weekend: 9–11 January 2015

Tutor: Stephanie Burnham

Using subtle colours we shall be creating beadwoven pieces with a vintage/shabby chic feel, from flowers to birds and charms, all combined in lovely bracelets and necklaces. All the main beadwoven techniques will be introduced with appropriate help with colour and texture.

G312 Stained Glass For All Levels

Wed – Fri: 14–16 January 2015

Tutor: Michael Ross

Shared bedroom occupancy: £241.00

Single bedroom occupancy: £273.00

Non-resident: £185.00

Using traditional stained glass materials, tools and techniques, we will produce a unique stained glass window, so whatever your skill level, this open course is a great chance to learn this art form, make new friends and find that creative spark. Once you know how something is made, you can begin to enjoy it on many levels and begin an exciting journey. For those interested in trying traditional painting techniques, it may be best if you combine both courses to give yourself sufficient time to complete the larger projects.

There will be a supplement of approximately £20 for this course, payable to the tutor. See course G578 below.

G578 Stained Glass For All Levels

Weekend: 16–18 January 2015

Tutor: Michael Ross

G528 Hollywood Moguls: Darryl Zanuck and 20th Century-Fox

Weekend: 16–18 January 2015

Tutor: Peter Kendrick

Standard Weekend Price: See above

Darryl Zanuck (1902–1979) was the last of the great movie moguls, who during half a century was involved with over 600 films. He was head of production at Warner Brothers at age 29 and two years later founded 20th Century Pictures, which merged with Fox. He retained personal control over every film at the studio, and was responsible for such Oscar-nominated films as "The Grapes of Wrath", "How Green was my Valley", "Gentleman's Agreement", "All about Eve" and "The Longest Day". His fame as a producer was matched by his macho reputation on both playing field and casting couch. This course explores the man's life and career, and is illustrated by extensive documentary material and the above most notable of his films.

G516 Bobbin Lace – Beginners Welcome

Weekend: 16–18 January 2015

Tutor: Alison Winn

Standard Weekend Price: See above

Spend a few days learning to make bobbin lace. If you are a new lace maker you will learn by preparing for and making a small piece of lace using the two basic stitches common to all laces. Time permitting you will be able to start the second pattern. Experienced lace makers might wish to continue with their current work, select a new pattern or try a different type of lace. You can choose from Torchon, Beginners Beds/Beginners Beds, Bruges or Braid from the variety of patterns I will bring to the course. If pillows, bobbins and pins are required, they can be purchased from the tutor for approximately £25.

Please Note: Where appropriate, we will send out a materials list in advance of the course, particularly in the case of craft courses.

Romanians, in their hundreds of years of living in Europe, have often been shrouded in mystery and misunderstanding which all too often has led to fear and prejudice. Paradoxically, there have been those who have emulated what they perceive as the gypsy spirit and life style. We will look at both of these aspects to try and understand how and why so many myths have arisen about the Romanians.

See course G573 below.

G573 Traders, Trappers and Tribes

Weekend: 30 January – 1 February 2015

Tutor: Bob Davies

Standard Weekend Price: See above

The Hudson's Bay Company's exploration of Canada makes a fascinating and exciting story which will be illuminated through the lives of key figures such as Samuel Hearne, David Thompson and Peter Fidler. We will encounter the explorers through a study of their journals and maps. The lectures will also look at the stories of first meetings with Native Americans, the intermarriages and the dramatic history of inter-company rivalry which almost amounted to a civil war at the end of the 18th century.

See course G920 above.

Sun – Wed: 15–18 March 2015

Tutor: Kay Dennis

Shared bedroom occupancy: £313.00

Single bedroom occupancy: £361.00

Non-resident: £240.00

Stumpwork is a 17th century form of embroidery which, when true to its tradition, is small and intricate. What makes stumpwork unique is the padding and raising of embroidery and needlelace to give elements a 3D appearance. The course is designed to introduce learners to this delightful style of embroidery and to encourage those with more experience to extend their knowledge. Beginners can select a pattern from the tutor's collection and those with more experience can bring a design of their choice.

G921 Imaginative Watercolour

Tuesday 17 March 2015

Tutor: Di Lorrigan

One day non-residential course

9.15am–4.45pm £58

You can simplify and leave bits of a subject out when you paint... because the viewer will imagine some things that are not there. This day course will give you the planning skills that will let you successfully do that. The tutor will demonstrate and also circulate around the class offering help and advice in a relaxed and informal atmosphere. See course G922 and G923 below.

G922 Interpretation of Light in Watercolour

Wednesday 18 March 2015

Tutor: Di Lorrigan

One day non-residential course

9.15am–4.45pm £58

Lighting can make a big difference to a picture; it can change the whole atmosphere. Sometimes the effect of light is fleeting, but if we can capture it in a painting it can influence the form and components of a landscape to great effect. I hope you will come on this day course and go away understanding the importance of light to a picture and therefore improving your work. See course G921 above and G923 below.

G923 'Water Under the Bridge' in Watercolour

Thursday 19 March 2015

Tutor: Di Lorrigan

One day non-residential course

G313 Much Ado about Nothing: Deception, Darkness and Dogberry

Wed – Fri: 25–27 March 2015

Tutor: Trudy Hillier

Shared bedroom occupancy: £241.00

Single bedroom occupancy: £273.00

Non-resident: £185.00

We will explore, through reading and analysis, one of the most popular of Shakespeare's comedies, Much Ado About Nothing. We will focus on the central theme of deception in the play: in particular the benevolent deception which supports the love story between Beatrice and Benedick and the malevolent deception which underpins the plot against Hero. We will also consider the play in performance by looking at recent film and television adaptations. Participants will need to have read the play prior to attending the course. G548 'In seiner frühen Kindheit ein Garten' by Christoph Hein

German Language through Literature (Intermediate-Advanced Level)

Weekend: 27–29 March 2015

Tutor: Walter Drews

Standard Weekend Price: See above

A retired grammar school headmaster and his wife found it difficult to understand the political orientation and strange development of their son who was killed in a 'shoot-out' with the police. Although it had been suggested by some sources that it was a case of suicide, the father, suspecting that murder was involved and mistrusting the official version, is determined to seek the truth. Christoph Hein, a well respected German author, has based this novel on an actual event. The book should be purchased*, read in advance and brought to the course, when we will re-read and discuss selected extracts, view a German film of merit, and consider various protest movements in German history. Students who are not already in possession of the book are asked to contact the tutor in the first instance.

Tutor Details

Aza spent over 20 years running her own picture framing business, then decided to try a new direction and gained a Graduate Diploma at West Dean College in China Restoration. Since 2005 she has been teaching not only this, but also picture framing, miniature painting and stained glass, as she now gets more pleasure in passing on her skills to others than actually choosing just one from which to make a living.

Anderson, Brian (page 6)

Brian is a photographer, lecturer and wilderness adventurer based on the Wirral. Brian has been lucky to travel to 46 countries in Europe, Africa, Asia, South America and further afield into the Arctic circle, to the Geographic North Pole and to the remote Antarctic Continent, to capture landscape, wildlife and travel images. His images and articles have been published on international websites, in travel brochures, and UK photographic journals and lifestyle magazines.

Anderson, Debbie (pages 15, 32)

Debbie has been beading since 2004 and is passionate about her subject and delights in passing on her beadwork techniques to others. She has her own online business creating bespoke beadwork for special occasions such as weddings. Debbie is also a member of the Beadworkers' Guild

Ashwell, Gillian (pages 7, 34)

Gillian has been fascinated by and working with beads since she was a child, and has been a teacher of beadwork for the past 29 years, teaching extensively throughout Bedfordshire and further afield.

Attwood, Carl (page 20)

Carl is a musician and priest; a pianist and conductor. He lectures on many different areas of music.

Ray has travelled the Ancient World in the company of experts for almost two decades and re-packages the results as narrative history for presentations to non-specialist audiences.

Austin, Pam (page 10)

Pam just loves fibre and colour, mixing them together in spinning, dyeing, weaving and knitting. She really enjoys teaching others to share her passions and skills. She started her Spinning School in 2010 to teach spinning and weaving. She was professionally taught to spin and weave in the 1980s, gained a BSc Hons degree in 1999 and established the Guild of Long Draw spinners in 2007.

Baker, David (pages 18, 33)

David was involved with NASA on the Apollo and Shuttle programmes and is currently editor of Spaceflight magazine. He has written more than 80 books on space and science.

Victor studied Egyptology at the Universities of Manchester and Liverpool. He now works for Ancient Egypt magazine and lectures for Egyptology Societies throughout the UK. His main areas of interest are Egyptian religion and Egyptian art.

Boehme, Sally (page 23)

Sally has been creating jewellery for 27 years and teaching adults polymer clay and beadweaving techniques for six years. She also sells her pieces and works to commission.

Box, Richard (pages 15, 16, 20, 23)

Richard is an artist working in both fine and applied arts. He is also an art historian and lectures to NADFAS as well as other interested societies.

Burditt, Philip (page 17)

Philip conducts and plays in a variety of wind groups for which he composes and arranges music. He produces recordings of live concerts and plays in a rock band

Burnham, Stephanie (pages 6, 21)

Stephanie teaches textile design and beading in the UK, Japan and the USA. Her inspiration is derived from different cultures and trends within the fashion industry and she has written five books.

Bury, Patricia (page 9)

Patricia has taught for over thirty years at venues throughout the country. She was a founder member of The Lace Guild serving on several of their committees. She has been a judge for the guild and for OIIFA (the international lace association). Her lace has featured in several books and has been exhibited in Europe and Japan.

Caine, Alan (page 32)

Alan is an artist and lecturer, teaching practical courses and lecture courses devoted to the history and appreciation of art. Until his retirement in 2002 he was responsible for the Art programme in the University of Leicester's Department of Adult Education. With colleagues, he was involved in the development and building of the Richard Attenborough Centre for Disability and the Arts and was its Associate Director.

Carter, Jill (page 18)

Jill is an experienced textile tutor and has run her own successful business, Masterclass, for over 25 years. She teaches nationwide, is the author of 5 embroidery books and a regular contributor to needlecraft magazines.

Joy has been teaching calligraphy and a variety of craft subjects to adults for over 25 years. She worked as a signwriter and now concentrates on calligraphic commissions. She has been running the Copperplate Special Interest Group since 2005.

Davies, Bob (pages 12, 24, 25)

Bob has lectured on the history of travel and travel writing for over 20 years. He currently alternates his lecturing and research with travelling, canoeing, walking and climbing.

Dennis, Kay (pages 8, 36)

Kay has worked in adult education for over 25 years and works regularly for The Embroiderers Guild, the National Trust, Knuston Hall, private groups and until recently, Missenden Abbey. She has written four books on stumpwork.

Dennis, Kay/Everett, Hazel/ Trott, Pat (pages 36)

Pat, Hazel and Kay are all experienced tutors with many years of teaching experience. Pat and Kay have City and Guilds qualifications in their specialist subjects and Hazel trained at the Royal School of Needlework. All three tutors have written books on their specialist subjects.

Drews, Walter (pages 7, 39)

Walter has been teaching German language courses at all levels for many years and is highly conversant with 19th and 20th century German literature and history. He is of Anglo/German parentage, is a native speaker and was formerly Principal of Wansfell Residential College in Essex.

Ray studied classical violin and piano in his youth and was organist in Kent churches. He has spent many evenings playing guitar or accordion and singing in Fenland Pubs and entertaining in Old People's Homes. He performed with the Mepal Molly Men, Ely-based Folk Band 'Eel Pie' and Hoofbeat, Fen Blow and the Cherry Hinton Band. Ray has been working in Community Education for 30 years. In 2007 he left England and now lives in the Lot et Garonne area of South-west France, and has played with local French band The Dusty Bottoms, as well as solo work for Marches Gourmands and local restaurants. He believes that the real pleasure in music can only be gained by sharing with others by performance.

Meals and Refreshments

English/continental breakfast is served from 8.15am, lunch at 12.45pm (1pm on Sunday), and the evening meal at 7.00pm. Morning coffee with home-made biscuits is served at 11am with afternoon tea and cake at 4pm. Each bedroom has tea/coffee making facilities.

Road/Rail Travel

Turn to the inside back cover of this brochure for details of local roads and rail links.

Accommodation

Sleeping accommodation is available in single, twin, double and three-bedded rooms, all of which are ensuite. Some bedrooms are up two flights of stairs and a small number are on the ground floor.

Please advise us of your bedroom requirements when booking. We have no facilities for pets with the exception of guide dogs.

Private Study

It is sometimes possible to provide accommodation and meals for guests who wish to spend some time engaged in private study. This option is often taken up by those sharing a twin or double room with a guest on a course. It is rarely possible to allocate a single room for 'private study' due to the demand for such rooms, but such a request may be possible at short notice.

Knuston Bar

Knuston Hall has a small bar which opens at lunch time and in the evening until 11pm.

Personal Equipment

It is assumed that all personal belongings and equipment brought to Knuston by guests are covered by their own insurance and are fit for use in every way.

Personal and Sensitive Information

Please feel free to contact Knuston Hall on 01933 312104 to discuss any personal or sensitive information, if you think that by being aware of this information, we will be able to cater for your needs before and during your visit.

Please also let us know whether you are happy for the information to be disclosed to other staff/tutors where relevant and appropriate. Alternatively you may inform us that you would prefer this personal or sensitive information not to be disclosed to any other person.

When telephoning Knuston Hall you may ask to speak to any of the members of staff mentioned on Page 1 of the brochure.
