Friday Lace In – bring your pillows, knitting, crochet etc and enjoy an evening of lacemaking chatting with friends old and new and with a break for dinner.

50/50 Table – bring your unwanted books threads, etc to sell on the 50/50 stand. The proceeds are divided equally between yourself and the lace guild. Please collect a form from reception and complete it before taking the goods to the 50/50 stand. Please also remember to collect anything that is not sold before you leave for home.

Second Hand Books – a good selection of second had books will be available for sale on The Lace Guild library stand.

YLM competition

Convention Competition: The theme for convention is 'HATS'. This is a free, fun competition with small prizes and you may enter more than one item. Please bring your entry to the education stand by 10.00 on Saturday morning where you will be asked to fill out an entry form.

We will need your permission to use photographs of your lace in the magazine and on the website. Permission forms available when you hand in your competition piece.

All delegates will be invited to vote for their favourite piece. Voting will close at 4.30 pm on Saturday and the winners will be announces at the convention dinner. If you would like your piece returned by post please provide an addressed envelope for its return. We would greatly appreciate stamps towards the postage for its return to you.
